

ERIC COKER — PRESS KIT

Press Kit — 150■Word Bio

Eric Coker is a Los Angeles-based showrunner, writer, pastor, and AI creator whose work centers Black men with specificity and care. His series slate explores toxic masculinity, desire, faith, and the cost of silence, while his music label, Mujistic, delivers AI-assisted scores spanning R&B, hip-hop, ambient, and worship. Coker approaches AI as a collaborator—transparent datasets, no style-cloning living artists, and cue sheets for ethics—keeping story and human performance at the center. Through EricCoker.TV, he develops cinematic worlds; through GoodPoison.TV, he curates anthology storytelling with bite; and at TryChrist.com he pastors a community committed to worship, justice, and truth. His mission is simple: build work that's emotionally exacting, morally complex, and technically modern.
